City, School Races Develop

POWER POSITIVE

You can take all the hate in the world, bundle it, box it, crate it, store it until all the warehouses are full, all the caves are crammed, all the storage facilities chockful, and it will not have the creative force of one simple "yes!"

115-115-115

Conformists of middle-America follow the supposition that conformists are moral and non-conformists are somehow immoral.

George Succeeds Harper As Alcoa Chief Executive

John D. Harper, former Rockdale Works manager and Aluminum Company of America chief executive officer since 1965, was succeeded by chief operating officer, W. H. Krome George effective March 1, the company board of directors announced Friday at Pittsburgh, Pa.

Harper, who will be 65 in April, will remain as chairman of the board until the end of 1975.

Harper began his Alcoa career at the company's Tennessee Operations in 1925 as a summer employee. He has worked continuously for the company since graduation as an electrical engineer from the University of Tennessee in 1933. He became district power engineer in 1943, and in 1951 moved to Texas to become Rockdale Works' first Works manager.

He moved to Pittsburgh in 1955, becoming general manager-smelting the following year. He was elected vice president-smelting and fabricating in 1960. In 1962 he was elected executive vice president and a director, and was elected president in 1963. He has been chief executive officer since 1965 and board chairman since 1970.

What a shabby retreat from what this country once said: "Be yourself, prove yourself, build, stand for something, innovate, do, be, grow, triumph, even fail, but try."

Now it is: "Survive, conform even in non-conformity. Be the same, duplicate, cop out, take the easy way, whimper, retire early, if in doubt, quit, draw a pension."

That is as much the "new morality" as the kind that conformists worry so much about. Fact is they worry so much about others, they don't know who they are or what they are doing.

Frankly, I am sick of critics who cannot wait to envelope things in some new code, provision, doctrine, embodiment, gray, prostrate sameness.

They are making imitators out of potentially creative people, who, given some part of a chance, might contribute to solutions, as a cliché goes, instead of being part of the problem.

115-115-115

There is something about the "spirit of a thing," the momentum, the rapport, the tempo. It requires no melody line. It is supposed to be there, like the basses and percussion in a symphony orchestra, waiting for individual players to provide lyric lines and harmonics, the brights and mellows that bring life and flair and wit to the sobriety and deeper meaning of the whole.

And it is finally all there, full orchestra, but you must look for all the parts playing, however emotional, however melodic, to find them. And if the "spirit of a thing" is there, you find all these, including what you cherish the most, to give or take.

115-115-115

There is a direct relationship between the criticism of the media and its proximity to the truth within a controversy.

So next time "they" badmouth this column, this newspaper or its editorials, see if "they's" name is in the news.

FORMS FOR CURBING are ready for concrete at City Park, where curbs and gutters are being installed all around the park. Here, Tuesday's rains left a water puddle for reflections of elm trees at the park. Plans call for fresh topsoil to be placed in the park, with plantings of shrubs and grasses. New equipment will be installed, including tables and benches, barbecue grills, and spring toys for the younger set.

Alcoa Shuts Down Potline At RW

Due to rising costs and an intense metal supply-demand relationship, Aluminum Company of America's Rockdale Works will temporarily reduce primary aluminum production March 9 by shutting down a 30,000 tons-per-year potline, according to Fred P. Bergeron, Alcoa Texas area manager.

Fifty-one employees will be affected, increasing local Alcoans on layoff to 119. Sixty-eight were laid off in early January when production was cut 4 percent.

The plant, which employs over 1,700, is facing its first complete potline shutdown since 1972. This cutback will leave the nation's largest aluminum smelter with about 85 percent of its 290,000 tons-per-year capacity in operation.

"We hope this curtailment will be temporary in nature, although we do not know the duration at this time," Bergeron said. "We also are aware that some smelting capacity at Point Comfort, TX, and Mesena NY will be curtailed at the same time."

The latest round of cutbacks will not affect the multi-million dollar modernization program at Rockdale Works or the massive power plant expansion announced last fall.

"In selecting the smelters affected, Alcoa considered many factors, including costs, especially of energy," Bergeron pointed out.

Alcoa said a potline at Alcoa, TN, rated at 100,000 tons a year is scheduled to be re-started next week. The capacity has been out of production since January 28 because of electrical equipment failure.

The net effect of the two moves will leave Alcoa with an operating rate of 86.5 percent of its U. S. rated capacity. Alcoa's domestic smelters were operating at about 91 percent of their capacity of 1,575,000 tons a year until the Tennessee breakdown.

Primary production cutback will be accompanied by a reduction in alumina output at Point Comfort to balance the needs of the Alcoa smelting network.

Curtailments at the three smelters will affect about 360 employees.

Candidates Filing For Council, Board

Contested races are developing in both city and school elections, as more candidates file for posts on the council and on the school board.

There are three candidates for Place 3 on the city council, a position now held by Councilman Gene Lumpkin, who has filed for re-election.

Other candidates filing for Place 3 include James Kahler and Lily E. Hunter.

Lawrence Zotz has filed for re-election to Place 1 and Mrs. Jan Luecke has filed for Place 2, now held by Bob Clark who is not seeking re-election.

In the school board election, Charles Kunz has added his name to the list of candidates for the board. Filing so far are Kunz, Roselee Mondrik, Rufus Floyd and Keith Raine. There will be two positions up for election.

Filing for re-election is Billy Horning, incumbent. The other incumbent, Dana Kestenbaum, has not as yet filed for re-election.

Council Views Parking Problem On Short Agenda

City councilmen with a short agenda finished a regular meeting in an hour Tuesday, taking care of several items and turning over others to proper authorities.

One item that came up was about employees' parking in front of stores so that customers can't find a place to park and shop. This was turned over to the city planning commission for study and a recommendation.

Councilmen were told that the Texas Highway Department's approval is pending on the seal coating of several arterial streets in the city. This would include Fannin from First to 22nd; 22nd from Fannin to the SP Railroad west; industrial road from 22nd to Industrial Blvd.; and if funds are available 6th St. from Jackson to 15th and 12th from Harding to Emancipation.

In other business council approved a request for a mobile home permit, heard department head reports and paid routine bills.

It also authorized Councilman Gene Lumpkin to contact residents on Fannin about putting in curb and gutter before seal coat is put on the street this summer.

Bentsen Offers Federal School Bill

"For too long we have penalized the child who happens to be born in a poor school district by giving him an unequal chance for a quality education," US Sen. Lloyd Bentsen said this week, outlining the bill he has introduced in Congress.

Bentsen said he believes the solution to unequal financing of school districts is to insure that public school financing is based on the wealth of individual states, rather than of school districts.

"Basically, my bill provides incentive grants from the Federal government to those states taking steps to insure that state wealth and not local district wealth determines educational quality," he stated. "It also requires that state plans meet the special requirements of children with special educational needs, such as the handicapped."

Sen. Bentsen said the bill in no way mandates equalization plans; is not punitive; and does not compel states to participate. "It is a strictly voluntary program that offers genuine financial incentives," he added.

Bentsen said it is not the intention of the measure to penalize wealthier school districts by "levelling them down" to the level of poorer districts. But by providing incentives for states to guarantee that more state funds are spent for overall education, it is the intention that poor districts be "levelled up" to the spending levels of their wealthier counterparts.

In poor districts, Bentsen said, "The buildings the student studies in may be dilapidated and run down. The teaching he receives tends to be of lower quality than in wealthier school districts. The textbooks and supplemental materials may be meager and outdated."

"And the problem is hardly limited to Texas or to any other single section of the country. The disparity between the richest and poorest school districts in Louisiana stands at 52 to 1. In Michigan, it is 30 to 1."

Bentsen said he introduced similar legislation last year that passed easily in the Senate but died in Conference with the House of Representatives.

"This session, however, my measure has already been introduced in the House. Its chances of passing there are currently more than good," he said.

President To Headline NNA Conference

WASHINGTON

NNA has announced that President Gerald Ford will headline an all-star cast of government officials who will speak of inflation, recession, energy, and other contemporary problems during the National Newspaper Association's 14th annual Government Affairs Conference, March 12-15.

President Ford's staff has advised NNA that the President will receive NNA's Conferees at a White House reception Thursday afternoon, March 13. Many of the President's top advisors are expected to be present during the reception.

The White House affair will provide a break from Capitol Hill activities for the Conference participants, as it comes between briefings by Congressional leaders and an evening reception, all located on the Hill.

Frank M. Luecke, Herald editor-publisher, is Texas chairman for NNA and a member of the NNA Public Notice Committee.

Several meetings are scheduled during the Conference. The Executive Committee of NNA's Board of Directors will meet Wednesday morning, March 12. NNA's Government Relations Committee and Public Notice Committees are also planning meetings and the Newspaper Association Managers will meet Friday morning, March 14.

An open house and early registration is set for Wednesday evening, March 12, at Stouffer's National Center Inn, near National Airport in Arlington, VA., headquarters hotel.

Grain Prices Tumbling Down

A slowing down of export demands coupled with projections for record acreage this year, has driven grain sorghum prices sharply down, and experts in the field say the bottom has not been reached yet, according to the "Blackland Farm News," official publication of the Blackland Cotton and Grain Producers Association.

Continuing a month-long down trend, sorghum dipped to $3.40 per CWT Feb. 20 in Dallas area commodities trading. This was down from a high two months earlier of $5.25 per hundred. These trends have caused a great deal of concern among farmers, who have committed large acreage to grain sorghum this year.

Buel Ray Bentley, owner of Northeast Texas Commodity Exchange in Greenville, said commodities experts in Kansas City are talking about milo bottoming out at $2.25 to $2.50.

"They are predicting that corn will go to $2, and if this comes true, milo will be right down there with it -- probably in the $2.25 to $2.50 range," Bentley commented.

He listed three reasons he felt the grain market had nosedived. The first was the lack of export demand. Secondly, he feels the lack of use of grain as livestock feed has cut the demand, and third, the prospects of a large crop have caused many large brokers to predict surpluses.

"To sum it up briefly," Bentley said, "it's looking bad at this point." Norman Hutchinson with Clayton Brokerage in Dallas also sees signs of a weakening in the already slumping market.

"The trend in all grains is down," he says. "We are not making any predictions as to where it will bottom out, but we don't feel it has reached bottom yet."

He listed lower consumption as a primary reason for the slump in the market. He also said some speculative sellings are driving the market down.

Rogers Trustees Approve Bid For School Bonds

The Rogers school board has approved a bid to sell $300,000 in bonds for school construction and improvements voted by the school patrons in the November bond election.

In a special meeting Rogers trustees approved the bid of Russ Securities Corp. of San Antonio, who submitted the apparently low bid of 6.33 percent effective interest.

The bonds will be sold to finance construction of a vocational complex across from Rogers High School and remodeling in the Rogers Junior High School and high school building.

The trustees plan to break ground on the vocational complex in mid-spring.

"We are not exporting nearly as much as last year," Hutchinson said. "That means we have a large carry-over."

To illustrate the current down trend, Hutchinson gave figures showing how some commodities have dropped in price.

"Wheat on a March contract is going for $3.85. A month ago it was $4.60," Hutchinson said. "Soybeans today are at $5.56 compared with $8 two months ago, and corn is going down daily from $3.80 a month ago; it is now at $2.91."

One disturbing thing about the current market trend is that this is a time when there is usually an upward trend in the market, and is traditionally one of the stronger market times of the year.

Will grain sorghum get down to $2.50? Hutchinson says his firm is not making predictions, but "..... we wouldn't bet against it at this point."

Land Of Size, Future...

Once in a while, somebody renews the idea of dividing Texas into several or as many as five states.

Rep. Jim Collins, Dallas Republican, most recently raised the issue for federal reasons. He says liberals seek to penalize Texas oil and beef interests in the Senate while the liberalized House urges cheap fuel oil and expensive gasoline for the Northeast.

He rationalizes that Texas would have 10 senators instead of 2, offsetting the political potency of New England states little bigger than Dallas, Houston, or San Antonio and their counties.

What he suggests is not new, of course. People have said Texas is too big almost since it became a republic and after statehood.

This may have been true even in Nance Garner's day. But communications have changed that. And the implications of having five or whatever states, complete with capitols, prisons, school systems, tax systems, etal, are staggering.

Instantaneous communication has shrunk the world, let alone Texas. Industries and people must deal with this.

The Dallas congressman says he is serious about the proposal. And perhaps for a time it would provide balance in the U. S. Senate more in line with Texas size and population, particularly in comparison to New England states.

But the economic shift southwest is inevitable and continuing. The rest of the country owes no greater allegiance to the Northeast than to the Southwest.

But industry is moving this direction because of Northeast congestion. And it will continue. The fact Texas has perhaps two million under-employed, under-educated people in South Texas, which would sub-divide a bit south, east, and west, is enough to sustain development here for another generation, perhaps two. The Northeast cannot say that.

Texas is the land with a future. And its size is basic to that development.

One Of The Great Ones...

Leon Jaworski, recent special Watergate prosecutor, has been named "Texan of the Year" by Texas Legislative Conference officials.

Jaworski, a Houston attorney and onetime prosecutor at the Nuremburg Trials following World War II, has also been president of the State Bar of Texas, the American Bar Association, American College of Trial Lawyers, and Texas Civil Judicial Council.

About 70, Jaworski is the "lawyer's lawyer". His prodigious career finds few parallels in this generation or the last.

He is a Texan who restored confidence among Eastern liberals who thought perhaps only one of their own would proceed with Watergate to satisfy justice. His professionalism is equal to the broadest interpretation of justice.

Eastern desire to stereotype Texans is as provincial as Texans' desire to renounce Yankees in mass as a bunch of carpetbaggers.

People are pretty much the same all over. Leon Jaworski happens to be one of the great ones.

"Low Down" FROM THE Congressional Record

By JOE CRUMP

HINTS SOCIAL SECURITY
RESERVES MAY DWINDLE

Senator Lloyd Bentsen (Texas) "... This week a paper entitled, "Social Security, a Sound and Durable Institution of Great Value," was presented to the public by a distinguished group of men with recognized expertise in the field of social security. The group included five former Secretaries of Health, Education, and Welfare, namely the Honorable Arthur Flemming, the Honorable John Gardner (Common Cause), the Honorable Wilber Cohen, the Honorable Robert Finch, and the Honorable Elliot Richardson. ...

"It will be noted that the group includes Secretaries and Commissioners of both political parties who served under both Republican and Democratic administrations. It can, therefore, in no sense be termed a political partisan statement.

"I believe that constant analysis of so important a system is always healthy. Criticism too can be helpful, if it is criticism directed to a constructive examination and uncertainties with which workers are always confronted such as unemployment, old age, disability or death of the family breadwinner.

"In the short run... there may well be a deficit in the system this year and possibly next -- especially if the gloomy economic forecasts of the President and his advisors can be relied upon

"If we have to dip into these reserves in a period of recession that is no cause for alarm.

"I may not be in complete agreement with every one of their conclusions. But I do intend to give it careful study and I commend such a study of this paper to my distinguished colleagues in the Senate."

CRUMP'S GRASS ROOTS COMMENT

Recipients of Social Security payments have watched with envy as some union members took advantage of the cost-of-living escalator clause in their contracts. This clause was finally added to the Social Security program. Individuals on Social Security, after a long wait, expect the promise of a cost-of-living increase to be honored.

Preference Primary Bill Limpers Through

A Texas presidential preference primary bill finally limped through the House of Representatives after two days of bitter debate.

Opponents assailed it as a winner-take-all measure, disregarding national party regulations aimed at assuring proportional representation among state delegates of presidential candidates.

Proponents argued it will give average voters a more direct voice than they now have in the presidential nominating process.

Impetus for the bill (HB 679) by Rep. Tom Schieffer of Fort Worth came from supporters of U.S. Sen. Lloyd Bentsen of Texas for president and citizens weary of the political convention process.

Fierce opposition came from Democratic liberals who want to retain the "reformed" convention system, from George Wallace supporters and a few who have little enthusiasm for Bentsen's candidacy. Most Republicans also voted against the bill — quietly.

As sent to the Senate, the measure calls for a vote in May on slates of delegates committed to presidential candidates who file. Elections would be held by senatorial or congressional districts (depending on decision of a state party's executive committee).

Seventy-five percent of Texas' allotted delegates to the national party conventions would be elected directly at the district level, 25 per cent at the state conventions.

Proponents predict Senate passage of a similar bill, but some senators are reluctant. Gov. Dolph Briscoe has given his support, along with Bentsen.

SCHOOL PLANS IN

Governor Briscoe's school finance revision plan hit legislative hoppers this week, and committees of both houses prepared to begin hearings on the high priority topic soon.

Briscoe's bill calls for a "weighted pupil" approach to distributing state aid and would cost $589.9 million during the next biennium ($919.9 million overall).

Cost compares with $2.7 billion for the Texas State Teachers Association school finance bill and about $1 billion for one proposed by Rep. Dan Kubiak of Rockdale, former House Education chairman.

Briscoe proposed to increase teacher salaries from $6,600 a year to $7,430 during the next year and $7,840 the next. TSTA is aiming for a $10,000 a year starting teacher salary and Kubiak recommended $8,400.

The Governor saw his bill as "a proposal to guarantee quality education to every child in Texas, regardless of the income of his parents or the wealth of his community."

BIG, BIG TRUCKS OK'D

The State Senate passed 29-1 legislation to increase the gross weight limit for trucks on main Texas highways from 72,000 to 80,000 pounds.

The lone dissenter, Sen. A. R. Schwartz of Galveston, claimed the new weight would cause highway damage and an additional safety hazard.

Sen. Kent Hance of Lubbock, the sponsor, said the bill merely conforms with new federal load limits for interstate highways and claimed the formula designed will cause little measurable road damage.

The Senate also passed a bill to permit suspensions of "incorrigible" pupils for periods up to a year after notice and hearing and on the showing that they are a threat to safety and disruption of the academic process.

COURTS SPEAK

The Court of Criminal Appeals ordered new trials for fathers in Dallas and Taylor counties charged with killing their babies.

New trial was also ordered for two San Antonio men who received 600 year sentences for shooting a night store manager to death.

The State Supreme Court held the Optometry Board of Texas can suspend advertising permits of opticians.

The High Court upheld a Court of Civil Appeals ruling that a Beaumont woman is entitled to $5,000 damages after false arrest on shoplifting charges at a discount store.

Third Court of Civil Appeals sustained a district court judgment enjoining Empire Life Insurance Company from doing business in Texas.

An Austin district judge's ruling against repayment of teacher retirement system contributions to a former University of Texas employee was upheld by the Texas Supreme Court.

APPOINTMENTS

Ruben Montemayor of San Antonio, attorney who served as mediator during the 11-day Huntsville prison siege of last summer, was named by Governor Briscoe to the State Department of Corrections.

Briscoe also reappointed Lester Boyd of Vernon and James Marvin Windham of Livingston to the Board.

The Governor reappointed J. Pearce Johnson of Austin as a member and chairman of the Parks and Wildlife Commission. Joe Kirk Fulton of Lubbock was reappointed.

Mrs. W. Smythe Shepherd of Beaumont was appointed to the Lamar University board of regents, and David K. McKie of Tyler, Dr. B. Hunt McVicker of Lufkin and Dean Walton Turner of Henderson were reappointed to the Tyler State College board of directors.

Briscoe named L. T. Faircloth of Carrollton, Sam C. Naifeh of Orange, Charles Truett Smith of Wylie (re-appointed) to Texas Industrial Commission.

AG OPINIONS
The adjutant general of Texas can permit civilian groups to use National Guard armory facilities if no state expense is involved, Atty Gen. John Hill held.

• Pollution data supplied by firms to Texas Air Control Board is public information.

The beheading of 16 government officials and the display of their heads on stakes in a northwestern town last week is the latest in a long series of atrocities by both sides of the Cambodian war. The 16 officials were members of a government rice distribution team taken prisoner at the small town of Maung Russei after heavy clashes in the area.

Crowd Small For Cotton Meet

By Bill McCutchen
Lack of interest in Cotton came to light again last Monday night as a group of only 14 gathered to hear Dr. Robert Metzger, cotton specialist and Dr. Dave Weaver, cotton weed control specialist.

A cotton meeting has been co-sponsored for seven years by the Milam County Farm Bureau and the Milam County Extension Service and this was by far the smallest group ever.

Dr. Metzger said that small crowds are typical this year as producers just aren't too enthused about cotton prospects. Metzger encouraged producers to hang on, as he expects better times ahead for cotton as synthetics sooner or later will feel the pinch of rising petroleum prices.

Dr. Dave Weaver, cotton weed control specialist said that there was a need for a crop like cotton in a rotation program because of weed problems particularly Johnsongrass and other annual grasses. These grasses can be controlled in cotton where as no chemical will control them in grain sorghum.

Control of Soil Insects
If soil insects are a problem in your garden, Dr. Charles Cole, Extension entomologist gives some tips on control.

He says that either Chlordane or Diazinon are very effective is used according to directions.

If Chlordane is used 2 pounds of 10% dust; 3/4 cup of 40% wettable powder in 3 gallons of water; or 1/4 cup of 74% emulsifiable concentrate in 3 gallons of water per 1000 sq. ft. of garden area applied to the surface and mixed thoroughly to a depth of 4 to 6 inches is quite effective. When Chlordane is used, treatment may be applied up to 4 weeks before planting.

If Diazinon is used 3/4 cup of 25% emulsion concentrates in 3 gallons of water or 1/2 cup of 50% wettable powder in 3 gallons of water is effective when applied at this rate per 1000 sq. ft. and worked in to a depth of 4 to 6 inches. If Diazinon is used, treatment should be applied just prior to planting the vegetables.

Root crops such as beets, carrots, onions, potatoes, radishes, and turnips should not be planted in chlordane treated soil.

Swine Marketing Meetings Set

Marvin Rodenbeck of Thorndale asks all Milam County swine producers whether small or large to attend a marketing meeting either March 11 at Thorndale or March 13 at Cameron.

The March 11 meeting will be at the Vo. Ag. Building at Thorndale and the March 13 meeting will be at the Vo. Ag. Building in Cameron. Both meetings will start at 8 p.m.

The purpose of the meetings are to explain and determine local interest in forming an area-wide swine marketing group similar to those recently formed in the Amarillo and Lubbock areas.

Several counties in this general area are considering this cooperative marketing arrangement in order to get top dollar for their market hogs.

CALF SCRAMBLE 11-1

Ag Producers Should Continue Fuel Economy

Farmers and ranchers must continue to be "fuel conscious" and stay abreast of the changing fuel situation if they expect to operate as efficiently as possible during 1975.

"Fuel use for agricultural production will continue to increase in the coming years while farm family fuel use is expected to decrease," points out Charles Bakers, marketing specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

He expects fuel used in agricultural production to be exempt from any government imposed price increases although the economic situation may dictate increases.

"Current stocks of crude oil and other fuels are high and consumption is down, but a lengthy embargo could still present serious problems," points out Baker. "Furthermore, agricultural producers are concerned with shortages of two types of fuel—natural gas and LP gas."

The demand for natural gas has far outpaced its supply at the regulated interstate price, notes the Texas A&M University System specialist. Not only has the low price depressed supply, but it has also encouraged consumption.

"LP gas supplies are also being threatened with overconsumption due to low prices," points out Baker. "LP gas is used widely within the petroleum industry as well as in agriculture."

The economist advises agricultural producers to be "fuel conscious" throughout the year and to consider the following points to minimize inconveniences:

1. Maintain contact with a reliable supplier.
2. Keep the supplier advised of future fuel needs and changes.
3. Keep on-farm storage filled.
4. Schedule machine work to avoid rush seasons when possible.

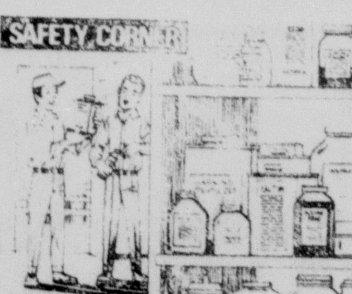

"Farmers and ranchers are generally leading the way in fuel conservation," contends Baker, "and they must continue to do so if they are to meet their production schedules."

Farmers Union To Hold Convention

U. S. food policy will be given a hard look during the National Farmers Union convention in Portland, Oregon, beginning March 16, with an effort launched to develop a new and encompassing plan.

Texas Farmers Union Vice-President Joe Rankin of Ralls, is the vice-chairman of the policy drafting committee which will present its draft of the 1975 National Farmers Union policy statement to the delegates during the convention. Ben Radcliffe, South Dakota Farmers Union president is chairman.

The policy drafting committee recently completed its work on the proposed document during a Denver meeting. Members of the policy drafting committee from Texas were Rankin, and Texas Farmers Union President Jay Naman of Waco.

Read First

When using pesticides or any other chemical, read the label before you act. Read it before buying the product, before opening the container, before mixing it, before applying it and before disposing of unused portions or containers. Read, understand, and follow all instructions and precautions.

Relief For Ranchers Forecast

"Things are looking up in the livestock business," according to one livestock marketing specialist.

An increase in the cattle slaughter, lower grain prices, reduced interest rates, and a decrease in meat imports are some of the factors enabling Dr. Ed Uvacek with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service to forecast some relief for ranchers.

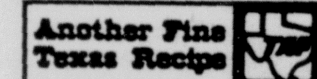

"Feed prices are down and in some parts of Texas milo is selling for under $4 per hundredweight. This will help feedlots bring down costs of feedings."

"The slaughter of cows, calves, and non-fed steers and heifers continues to increase. This is especially important since an oversupply of cattle is the main cause for present low prices. Every cow and calf slaughtered now means less of a beef problem down the road," points out Uvacek.

Cow and calf slaughter for 1975 should be up a third from last year's level, predicts the specialist, while non-fed steer and heifer slaughter could be up as much as 56 percent.

Another good sign for ranchers is that interest rates are coming down. "This will help loosen up the money supply and decrease interest costs for ranchers," notes Uvacek.

He adds that meat imports into the U. S. for 1975 should be close to the same levels as last year and may be even lower. "This would make the proportion of net beef and veal imports to U. S. production the lowest since 1968, and would also help cattle producers."

SAUSAGE DIP

1/2 pound bulk sausage
browned and drained
1 pound processed cheese
1 tsp. basil
1/8 tsp. ground thyme
1/2 can beer

In a double boiler over medium heat, melt cheese. Add beer and mix well. Add herbs and sausage. Mix well. Serve in a chafing dish with chips or crisp vegetables. Yield: 2 cups.

For additional recipes write Commissioner John C. White, Texas Department of Agriculture, P.O. Box 12847, Austin, Tex. 78711.

Fertilizer Also Good For Grass

With the present world food crisis and fertilizer shortages, should fertilizer use be restricted only to crop production?

"Absolutely not," argues Dr. Richard Duble, turf specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. "Fertilizer plays an important role in maintaining grasses in lawns, parks, and golf courses, and these areas make significant contributions to the environment as well as having aesthetic and recreational values."

"For instance," says Duble, "grasses release oxygen to the environment while filtering many harmful pollutants. Sulfur, a major air pollutant in industrialized areas, is readily absorbed and utilized by grasses. Plants also thrive on carbon dioxide exhaled by humans. Further more, turfgrasses significantly reduce temperatures, glare, dust, and noise in urban environments."

Another major function of grasses, according to the Texas A&M System specialist, is that they reduce soil erosion and water runoff, two major problems in many areas.

What about the aesthetic and recreational aspects of grasses?

"Turfgrasses are essential for the health and happiness of people in urban surroundings," contends Duble. "In a recent national survey city dwellers ranked 'green grass and trees' as essential for their well-being."

Green belts and open areas development, such as parks and golf courses, are becoming increasingly popular, according to the turf specialist. "Golf courses have replaced lakes as the major attraction for land developers for the sale of home sites, apartments, and condominiums."

Rather than restrict the use of fertilizer for turfgrasses, Duble urges efficient use of plant food materials. He also suggests the use of slow-release fertilizers that are especially formulated for use on turf. Organic materials such as sewage are also well suited for use on non-crop land to promote grass growth.

Persons who use insecticides in their gardens should read all labels carefully before applying the chemical, said Agriculture Commissioner John C. White. Pesticides applied at rates exceeding recommendations may be poisonous to the plant and develop resistance to the applied material in target pests.

IBPA Head Raps Beef Grading Cost

R. L. Moore, president of Independent Beef Producers of America advised the directors of the national organization during a meeting in Hugo, Okla. that the USDA grading service, with their unrealistic and inflationary charges for grading beef, is one of the hidden costs in our food baskets today.

The USDA grading service charge for a packer is $14.60 per hour, and if the packer is not located where the grader is stationed, he must pay the hourly charge to and from the plant plus mileage. These exorbitant charges are ultimately passed on to the consumer in higher prices for meat.

Lee Perkins, vice president of IBPA stated he was asking Congress for an investigation of the USDA grading service and their unrealistic charges. Moore stated that USDA should investigate themselves for windfall profits.

Smith Speaks At Meeting

Miss Ada Margaret Smith of Cameron was leader and first speaker for the Beta Nu meeting March 1, at Haus Bavaria in Rockdale, with the Rockdale members in charge of arrangements for the 9 a.m. breakfast.

Miss Smith, as chairman of the Society's Personal Growth and Services Committee, presented the topic "Recycle Your Skills" for Program No. 3 "Expanding Your Personal Involvement" from Delta Kappa Gamma's 1975 Focus of "The Woman Educator in Changing Times." Mrs. Lee Roy Carter of Rockdale was the other speaker for the program.

Miss Smith urged teachers to become involved in the technological world of today, with its vast opportunities for women educators. Public relations are important to a teacher, for such relations start with the student's first day of school in his first room with his first grade teacher. A teacher must communicate and be involved with the students, their parents, and the community, and know what is going on in the state and the world.

Mrs. Carter told of the problems for a teacher because of pressure groups with their own ideas. A teacher must be alert, informed, and active in the state's affairs as well as the community's.

In the business session presided over by Mrs. Roy Hensley of Cameron, the Membership Committee presented candidates to be voted upon in April. Mrs. Hensley requested the members to remember the Alpha State Convention, June 19-22, at the Sheraton Hotel in Dallas.

Mrs. Sidney Hughes of Marlin announced that the April meeting of Beta Nu will be at the Allen House in Marlin for a 12-noon luncheon.

Pate Museum Opens Space Travel Exhibits

The Pate Museum of Transportation is honored to join in an effort with NASA Houston and the Smithsonian Institution to provide an extensive space travel display. The special exhibit began March 1 and will run through May 31. This is one of the largest space travel exhibits ever assembled in North Texas.

Featured in the display is a moon rock sample returned to Earth on Apollo 12 by Astronauts Alan Bean and Charles Conrad. Along with the genuine moon rock are 7 man-made replica rocks depicting the composition of the moon's surface.

Other displays include an Apollo space suit mock-up. This display thoroughly describes the working parts of the suit as well as the life support unit or back pack. It is set up to resemble Astronaut Neil Armstrong walking on the moon's surface.

To show the dietary habits of Astronauts is a "Menu for Space" display. The display describes the food management systems used for space travel during the Mercury, Gemini, and Apollo programs. Actual samples of the types of food used are displayed.

A full-scale mock-up of the Mercury III capsule is included in the exhibit. Inside the mock-up is a mannequin representing Commander Alan Shepard at the controls making the United States' first manned orbital flight. Next to the mock-up is a genuine Mercury spacecraft. Originally it cost 7-million dollars. Designated Mercury 10, the capsule is quite unique as it is a complete, unflown specimen of the Mercury program. Visitors are able to view the cabin of the capsule showing hundreds of switches, dials, controls, and other devices all crammed into a area approximately the size of a telephone booth.

The current Skylab program is represented in the display with a scale model mock-up of a Skylab in a three-dimensional diorama. The exhibit features color transparencies which provide a brief explanation of the Skylab, some of the functions performed by Astronauts training for a Skylab mission and a few of Skylab's goals. Two other displays explain the major components of the Skylab spacecraft along with the purpose of long-duration missions. Also illustrated is the dental equipment used aboard Skylab.

The Pate Museum has on its own assembled a valuable collection of historic newspapers with front page headlines, pictures, and reading material about every manned space flight in the U. S. Space program. This involved material on space flights from the first Mercury mission through the present Skylab project. A pictorial display is also featured giving a short history of manned space flight.

Several small scale models of U. S. space equipment are included in the display. Featured are the Space Shuttle, Saturn V Rocket, Apollo/Soyuz docked together, Lunar Landing Module, several launch vehicles, and Lunar Globe.

Texas Baptists Record $2 Million Giving Month

DALLAS
For the first time in history, Texas Baptists recorded a $2-million giving month during January.

In the first month of 1975, churches and missions affiliated with the Baptist General Convention of Texas gave $2,187,593 through the Cooperative Program to state, national, and world-wide causes.

The Cooperative Program is the way Southern Baptist Convention-affiliated churches support a variety of activities ranging from seminaries to foreign missions.

The January total is $520,926 above the budget. It compares with $1,994,221 during January a year ago.

In noting the achievement, Dr. James H. Landes, executive secretary of the Baptist General Convention of Texas, said:

"Since we have achieved the first $2-million month in our history, I feel this provides the impetus for reaching our goal of $20,608,000 for God's work during 1975."

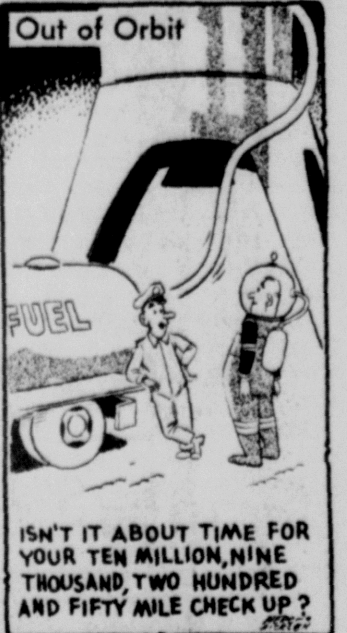

"It is a thrilling thing to see the churches of Texas catch the vision of what Texas Baptists together can do."

The $20,608,000 goal for 1975 commemorates the 50th anniversary of the Cooperative Program.

January also was designed 100 percent month, and all churches were asked to contribute.

According to Cecil Ray, director of the Texas Baptist stewardship division, 3,333 of the 3,854 churches gave during January, amounting to 86.48 percent.

"This is the best we have ever done," Ray said.

Kountze Claims AA Regional Title

The Kountze Lions blazed their way to the state finals by defeating the Cameron Yoemen, 75-64, Saturday night in the Brenham Regional Tournament.

THE THRILL OF VICTORY:

In the semi-finals Saturday morning, the Yoemen blanked Katy 69-56. The source of scoring for Katy, Karl Loble and Jackie Bassett, were smothered by Ronnie Bennett.

The Yoemen mounted an 8-0 lead before Katy could penetrate the hoop at Blinn Jr. College gym. However, by the end of the opening quarter, the Tigers had surged to within 2 of the Yoemen, 12-10.

With 5:55 in the second slot, the Tigers popped out an even 14 all and then stole the ball and connected on a free throw to take a short lived advantage over the Yoemen, 16-14.

The Yoemen tacked away 2 quick field goals and 1 free throw to gain a 5 point advantage by the half.

The Tigers tempers roared and the Yoemen connected on a T-Foul and asserted an 11 point lead over the Tigers who then begin a hapless press to fight the mounting deficit.

During the fourth quarter Coach Poole showed his mercy and started substituting freely, and during the transaction the Tigers pumped in 7 points.

With only 1:30 left in the morning contest, the Yoemen ascended their lead to 20 points, 69-49.

Jafus White gained high point status with 20 points. Ronnie Bennett terrorized the Tigers with 17 rebounds and added 17 points for the score board.

THE AGONY OF DEFEAT:

The Kountze Lions are en route to the state finals after tossing the Yoemen a 75-64 whipping to claim the Class AA regional title.

Coach Poole's dynasty ended with a season mark of 20-5. The Kountze Lions roared their way to Austin sporting a 26-4 win-loss mark.

One minute had clicked off the clock before either team could tally a single point, then Gary Hornung chipped the ice for the Yoemen with a field goal.

The Yoemen and Lions countered the scoring attack throughout the first quarter, until the Lions opened up an 8 point lead by the end of the first quarter.

8-16. The fast break took its toll during the second quarter, the Yoemen continued their try to cool the heels of the hot shooting Lions. The Lions blazed the nets, hitting 61% of their field goals.

The Yoemen's try to stop the mounting lead fell short of the needed energy and the Lions soared to a 13 point advantage by the half-time buzzer, 34-21.

Westley Shaw continued his display of scoring talents throughout the second half of regional play by dumping in 23 points while Jafus

White broke into the 20's by setting the Yoemen pace at 22.

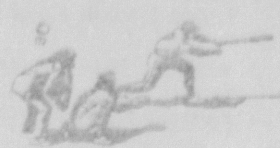

By the end of the third quarter, the Yoemen had decreased the deficit to 7, 48-41.

The Yoemen went into the press to try and regain the hopes of a state championship, but the try fell short only bringing the score to a 5 point deficit, 59-54.

With only 1:57 left at that point, the Yoemen asserted an all out attack, but the clock faded along with the hopes of Cameron Yoemen for the 1974-75 season.

Sports Spotlight

By Forrest Guess

As one season ends, another season begins. The Cameron Yoemen ended their basketball season with a respectable 20-4 mark. Coach Ken Poole's Yoemen had only one chance to falter as they entered the playoffs and Kountze put together a fast pace to end the Yoemen's season.

If you can look into the future, the Yoemen should be proud of what they have done and what they will do during the next roundball season. The Yoemen will loose the services of lettermen Gary Hornung and Randy Sapp, as regulars.

The seniors put together an important role in this year's victories but a heavy load of returning lettermen will have a running shot of the state finals in '76.

Coach Nelson Huffman's tracksters will be running this weekend when they will enter the Rockdale relays. Then a home look of the runners will be unveiled in the March 15 Yoe Relays at Yoe Field.

Again in the scheduling for Yoe High events.

Yoe High events is the hard ball season. Coach Jon Forsythe's baseballers will open their 1975 season when they travel to Belton March 10.

The district baseball games will begin April 1 when the Yoemen will face Rosebud-Lott.

The enthusiasm of the regional tournament was at an all time high when the Yoemen took the floor at Blinn Jr. College Saturday night. The crowd was the largest of any of the schools participating in the tournament.

The Yoemen have brought attention to Cameron by the winning ways of the 74-75 season. With town support the athletic department can engage in other ways of benefiting the learning environment. Athletics can play an important role in the educational system and with the guidance of the fine coaching staff the towns people should be proud of the fine Yoe tradition.

Murray-Go-Round

By Tom Murray

BIG AL:
An advantage of middle-age is that mileage allows one to reminisce.

We began 'recalling' immediately upon reading that New York Jet Owner Phil Iselin had named Dallas Cowboy Administrative Assistant Al Ward the new General Manager of that National Football League team.

Al Ward is a super nice man. He must be a super good pro-football administrator, too, but that is not our 'recall'.

In 1951, Yours Truly was sports editor of the Lackland Air Force Base newspaper. My boss was a Chicken Colonel, and that does not refer to an eagle.

He was, as Jim C's song goes, "meaner than a junkyard dog." He ran a successful Korean War Era athletic program at the big San Antonio base and wanted the fact duly reported in the local newspapers.

Those San Antonio civilian newspapermen had a cool way of handling a GI hack. With the Bird Colonel behind, and those Kool Kats ahead, it made you wish to return your two stripes, Uncle's $90, a month, and sign up for duty in Big K.

Then the San Antonio Express replaced one of their soreheads with a young, handsome, polite, and compassionate fellow named Al C. Ward. He was, and is today, one of the easiest men on this planet with whom to work.

Even the Colonel liked him. Ward jumped from the San Antonio sports beat to Waco, to Texas Football Magazine, to the American Football League, and then to the Cowboys.

Nice to have an old friend in power, but who in Texas would be interested in New York Jet tickets?

Yoe Whips Elgin

The Yoe High girls volleyballers won their second district match against Elgin. The girls sank Elgin in two games.

To lead off the Elgin match was the junior varsity, who pitted Joni Wilkerson against the entire Elgin team as she served away 10 straight points in one game.

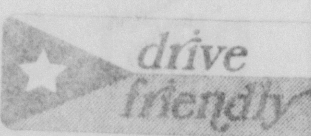

The final outcome proved the junior varsity of Yoe a 15-1 and 15-10 winner over Elgin.

In the varsity match, Yoe took the games 15-5 and 15-10. In the second game, Kim Sommers placed away 6 straight points for the winning effort. This marked the second win in a row for the Yoe girls which will continue their district matches this week facing Rosebud-Lott.

DECA Meet

Set Friday In San Antonio

More than 2,700 students leaders and faculty advisors in marketing and distribution will meet in San Antonio beginning Friday, March 7, for the 29th annual State Leadership Conference of Distributive Education Clubs of America, generally called DECA.

Representing some 22,000 DECA members in 630 high schools, the delegates will hear from nationally-known leaders in marketing, education, and government during two days of workshop and seminar sessions which end on Saturday.

A special feature of the Conference will be contests to select State winners in career categories--public speaking, advertising, display, sales demonstration, job interviews, and student of the year. Only first-place winners in local competition are eligible to compete, and State winners will be announced Saturday night at the concluding banquet session.

Recipients of the 1975 State DECA scholarships will be announced at the Saturday evening Awards Banquet. These awards provide outstanding students the opportunity for advanced study in marketing, management, or distributive education.

DECA operates through the nation's public schools to attract young people to careers in marketing and distribution. Formed in 1948 with only 800 students in 17 charter state, it grew to a total of 225,000 student members in 1975.

Lone Star Cites Low Returns

Lone Star Gas Company's return on its utility residential and commercial service in Texas "has been reduced to virtually nothing, primarily due to increasing gas costs," the Texas Railroad Commission was told March 3.

Louis B. Hulcy, senior vice president, told the Commission that "In 1974, while total natural gas sales by Lone Star climbed to a record $313 million, net income of the company's utility division was down 22% due mostly to a $76.5 million increase in gas purchase costs over the previous year."

The rate relief sought, Hulcy stressed, is "primarily to assist the company with the serious problem created by the increased cost of our gas supply." Hulcy urged the Commission to authorize a 100% monthly pass-on of increased gas costs instead of the 65% semiannual pass-on currently in effect.

In addition to Hulcy, six other company witnesses and two expert outside consultants were scheduled to give largely technical and financial testimony to the hearing examiner during the day.

Besides recouping from customers the rising costs of the gas it purchases, Lone Star has applied for an increase in the rate it can charge residential and commercial customers in Texas caused by inflationary rises in such items as materials, labor, costs of borrowed money, and taxes.

This is Lone Star's first full rate proceeding since 1969.

Nailing Notes

Proper nailing is essential to long life for lumber siding. Techniques are simple, but they differ with board styles. For illustrated tips send 15 cents in coin to Western Wood Products Assn., Dept. F, Yeon Bldg., Portland, Or. 97204.

Pressure treated western woods, imbedded in earth, will serve well for several decades.

To avoid nail stains on siding and fences, use galvanized or aluminum alloy nails.

A MAN WHO IS NOT ALONE

Prayer has always been a mystery. But through the centuries millions have turned to it, believed in it, and been strengthened by it.

Prayer doesn't solve our problems . . . it helps us find right solutions. It doesn't make trouble go away . . . it gives us courage to face our trials. Prayer is never a "safe conduct" through the lines of danger . . . it simply gives a man the bold assurance that he is not alone in his crucial hour.

You don't have to go to church in order to pray. You do have to want to be with God.

Worship and Christian education have long been the mainstays of continuous communication with God. Families who build their home and happiness on a spiritual foundation find Sundays in church the natural expression of their faith and fervor.

A man who cherishes the bold assurance that he is not alone makes being with God a way of life—not a last resort.
